DCI's, 8 May (contd.)

The Director suggested that in answering Mr. Hoover's letter on the IIC, Mr. Dulles say something that would approximate the following: "The results are too important for us to quibble about media of exchange or details of protocol. In dealing with foreigners there must be reciprocity and we must furnish them with information if we desire to receive any." The Director suggested that Mr. Hoover should be advised to make his own foreign contacts.
